By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS our Parliament ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the Nineteenth Day of this Inſtant October; We, with the Advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publiſh and declare, That the ſaid Parliament ſhall be further prorogued on the ſaid Nineteenth Day of October, to Tueſday the Sixteenth Day of November next. And we have given Order to our Chancellor of Great Britain, to prepare a Commiſſion for proroguing the ſame accordingly. And we do hereby further declare our Royal Will and Pleaſure, that the ſaid Parliament ſhall, on the ſaid Sixteenth Day of November next, be held and fit for the Diſpatch of divers weighty and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, and the Commiſſioners for Shires and Burghs of the Houſe of Commons, are hereby required to give their Attendance accordingly at Weſtminſter on the ſaid Sixteenth Day of November next.

Given at our Court at Kenſington, the Fourteenth Day of October, 1742, in the Sixteenth Year of our Reign.

GOD ſave the King.

Frederica in Georgia, July 9.

General Oglethorpe arrived here on the 6th by Day-break, without the Loſs of a Man, having brought up all the wounded on his Horſes. He immediately gave Orders for the Defence of this Place, and having ſent out Scouts on all Sides, and ſupply'd the broken and loſt Arms, &c. ordered all the Companies to be paraded. On the Afternoon of the ſame Day the Creek Indians brought in five Spaniſh Priſoners. On the 7th, the Kangers, who had been on the Scout, came in, being purſued by the Spaniards, and gave an Account, that the Enemy was within a Mile of this Place, where they had killed one of our People. The General thereupon leaped on the firſt Horſe, and immediately marched the Highland Company, who were then under Arms, and ordered 60 from the Guard to follow. He himſelf galloped with the Indians to the Place, which was juſt within the Woods, about a Mile from hence, where he found Captain Sebaſtian Santio, and Captain Mageleeto, with One Hundred and Twenty Spaniſh Troops, and Forty Five Spaniſh Indians. Captain Grey with his Chickeſaus, Captain Jones with his Tomohetaus, and Tooanohowi with his Creeks, and the General with ſix Highland-Men, who outran the reſt, immediately charged them. Capt. Mageleeto was killed, Captain Sebaſtian Santio taken, and the Spaniards entirely defeated. The General took two Spaniards with his own Hands. Captain Mageleeto having ſhot Tooanohowi in his Right Arm, as he ruſhed upon him, the latter drawing his Piſtol with his Left Hand ſhot him through the Head. The General purſued the Spaniards for near a Mile, and halted at an advantageous Piece of Ground, till the Guard came up, when he poſted the Highlanders on the Right, and the Guard upon the Left of the Road, concealed in a Wood, with a large Savannah or Meadow in their Front, over which the Spaniards muſt paſs to come to Frederica. After that he returned, and ordered the Regiment, Rangers, and Companies of Boatmen to march. Whilſt they were preparing, we heard Platoons firing. The General immediately got on Horſeback, and riding that Way, met three Platoons on the Left coming back in great Diſorder, who gave him an Account, that they had been broken by the Spaniards, who were extremely numerous; notwithſtanding which he rallied them, and he himſelf rode on, and to his great Satisfaction found, that Lieutenant Southerland, and the Platoon of the Regiment under his Command, and Lieutenant Mackay with the Highlanders, had entirely defeated the Enemy, who conſiſted of 300 Men. Don Antonia Barbara, who commanded them, was made Priſoner, but mortally wounded; they alſo took ſeveral of the Grenadiers and the Drum: The General then ordered all the Troops to march from Frederica to him, and as ſoon as they arrived, purſued the Enemy with them four Miles. In the two Actions there were one Captain, one Corporal, and 16 Spaniards taken, and about 150 killed. The reſt are diſperſed in the Woods, for the General halted all Night at a Paſs through the Marſhes, over which they muſt go in their Return to their Camp, and thereby intercepted them. The Indians are out, hunting after them in the Woods, and every Hour bring in Scalps.

July 8. Before Day-break, the General advanced with a Party of Indians to the Spaniſh Camp at St. Simon's, and found them all retired into the Ruins of the Fort, under the Cannon of their Men of War; upon which he returned hither, and about the ſame time a Party which he had drawn from Fort William arrived, notwithſtanding the Spaniſh Fleet lies between us to cut us off from that Place.

Florence,

[Price Two Pence.]

Florence, September 29. Cardinal Gotti, a Dominican Friar, died the 17th at Rome, which makes a Fifteenth Vacancy in the College of Cardinals. The Courier who carried the Pope's Remonſtrances to the King of Spain, againſt the Return of the Spaniards into the Eccleſiaſtical State, was ſtopp'd between Genoa and Antibes by the Engliſh Men of War, whoſe Officers opened his Diſpatches, and then let him paſs. The Biſhop of Gurk having demanded Satisfaction of the Pope for the Affront put upon Don Ciccio Puſitano, who was protected by the Queen of Hungary, the Judge, who was concerned in that Affair, has been thereupon taken into Cuſtody. The Spaniards give out that M. de Gages's Army conſiſts of 16,535 effective Men: The ſeveral Detachments of it joined at Fano the 21ſt Inſtant, and are marching by Catolica to Rimini; where they are to wait for further Orders from Spain.

Turin, Sept. 29, N. S. The King of Sardinia ſet out this Morning for the Frontiers of Savoy towards Mount St. Bernard. One Column of his Troops are aſſembled there, and wait for nothing but his Sardinian Majeſty's Arrival to enter Savoy that Way, while Baron Schulemburg, at the Head of another Column, enters by Mount Cenis, and the Valley of Morienne: They are ordered to join his Sardinian Majeſty by the Vanoiſe near Mouſliers, the Capital of Tarantaſia. Both theſe Columns are preceeded by a Body of two or three hundred Vaudois, of whom the Spaniards have the greateſt Apprehenſions, and who have already handled a Detachment of theirs pretty roughly near Modane, and killed the Captain who commanded it. The Spaniſh Army under M. de Gages, was expected Yeſterday or this Day at Rimini, and, by all the Accounts we have, ſeem to propoſe nothing more at preſent than extending their Troops in thoſe Parts, as well as towards Ceſena and Ravenna, for ſecuring their Subſiſtance.

Stockholm, October 1. M. Benzelius, the Biſhop of Linkoping, has been named and appointed Archbiſhop of Upſal.

Dantzig, October 10. N. S. By the laſt Letters from Finland we hear, That Feldt Marſhal Count Laſcy, having ſent a Detachment of his Troops from Helſingfors to Abo, to take Poſſeſſion of that Place, the Inhabitants immediately ſubmitted, and took the Oath of Fidelity to the Czarina.

Copenhagen, October 13, N. S. Their Daniſh Majeſties and the Prince Royal came to Town again on the 11th Inſtant. Yeſterday the Court and Council was held at the new Palace, and To-day every Thing is diſpoſed for their Return to Fridericksbourg.

Dreſden, October 17, N. S. Marſhal Maillebois has proclaimed throughout his Army, that all Soldiers who make any Incurſions on the Saxon Territories, ſhall be puniſhed with Death. There is no News of Importance from Bohemia ſince the 14th Inſtant. We hear that the Great Duke has detached about 10,000 Men after the French Corps that pierced by Elmbogen. The Uhlans are active in defending this Country againſt the French Maraudors, and the Bavarian Huſſars. Part of Marſhal Belliſle's Baggage, ſent from Prague to Francfort, paſſed by here Yeſterday.

Whitehall, October 16.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint John Wynyard, Eſq; to be Colonel of the Regiment of Foot, lately commanded by Lieutenant General James Tyrrell, deceaſed.

Kenſington, October 14.

This Day the Duke d'Aremberg had a private Audience of his Majeſty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Kt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

He was afterwards preſented to his Royal Highneſs the Duke, and to their Royal Highneſſes the Princeſſes Amelia, Caroline, and Louiſa, at the Circle in the Drawing-Room.

Where was likewiſe preſented to his Majeſty, and the Royal Family, Lieutenant-General Count Chanclos, Governor of Oſtend, who came with the Duke d'Aremberg.

Admiralty-Office, Sept. 24, 1742.

Notice is hereby given, that a Seſſion of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery, for the Tryal of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Juriſdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Tueſday the 9th Day of November next, at Juſtice-hall in the Old Baily, London, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning. Tho. Corbett.

General Poſt Office, London, July 3, 1742.

Whereas divers Perſons, thro' Ignorance or Carleſneſs, frequently put Letters into the General Poſt Offices, and the Receiving Houſes both in Town and Country, directed on board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying at the ſame Time the Poſtage, as ought to be done; And whereas Letters and Packets are often put into the ſaid Offices with Money and Rings incloſed, and in Fraud of his Majeſty's Revenue, divers Perſons preſume to ſend Letters with falſe and counterfeit Franks;

This is to acquaint the Publick, that no Letters under any of the Circumſtances aforeſaid have any Right by Law to be forwarded.

Note, That Letters going out of Great Britain (except to France, Holland, and Flanders) have by the ancient Uſage of this Office paid the Foreign Poſtage, and are required by the Act of Parliament ſo to do, at the Office in Great Britain where the ſame are firſt put in.

Note alſo, That if ſuch Letters to Foreign Parts are put into any of the Country Offices, the Inland Poſtage of ſuch Letters to London muſt alſo be paid on putting the ſame into ſuch Office

By Command of the Poſt Maſter General.
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

General Poſt-Office, London, Sept. 29. 1742.

POST CHAISES between London and Bath.

This is to acquaint the Publick, that the ſeveral Poſtmaſters on the Road between London and Bath, are ready ready to furniſh any Gentlemen, or others, with Poſt-Chaiſes, ſafe, eaſy, and well ſecured from the Weather, with a Lamp to give ſufficient Light in dark Nights, upon as ſhort Warning as for Poſt Horſes, any Hour either in the Day or Night. And farther Notice is hereby given, that whereas the Diſtance between Marlborough and Bath, has never yet been conſidered as Poſt Road, it will be computed at Thirty four Miles, according to Tompion's Meaſurement between thoſe two Places. Gentlemen who have Occaſion to go Poſt on the Bath Roads, are deſired to apply to Mr. Miller, Poſt-maſter, at the White Bear in Piccadilly.

N. B. A Poſt Chaiſe may be had at any of the Stages on the Bath Road, to go Part or all the Way, for one or more Stages, for thoſe who do not chuſe to travel in the Night. By Command of the Poſt-Maſter-General,

Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.
